PORTS OF CALL

Barcelona, Spain Nov 06

There's nothing quite like Barcelona. Especially if you consider the architecture. The city lays claim to its very own form of Art Nouveau, known as Modernisme. The Sagrada Familia Basilica is perhaps the best example of this beautiful and interesting brand of architecture, with its bold color, beautiful tile-work and swirling lines. At the same time, many find the work at the Picasso Museum and the cathedrals of the Gothic Quarter equally inspiring.

Palma De Mallorca, Spain Nov 07

As you sail into port on this Balearic Island, bask the amazing view of the dramatic Gothic cathedral, La Seu, which took about 500 years to build. Here history and modernity melt together wrapped in the deep blue of the Mediterranean and its famous white-sand beaches.

Alicante, Spain Nov 08

Boasting some of the finest beaches in all of Spain, Alicante is the largest city on the Costa Blanca. Relax on the pristine sand of La Playa de San Juan, shop the Explanada de España and conquer the Castillo de Santa Barbara to see how Alicante achieves the perfect balance of history and modernity.

Malaga, Spain Nov 09

Málaga is the gateway to the Andalusian countryside and the Costa del Sol, where you can dig your toes in to the sand of some of the most impressive beaches. But this bustling town has more to offer than surf and sun. Málaga also boasts a number of impressive palaces, including the Moorish Alcazaba and Gibralfaro, as well as the majestic Alhambra Palace.

Madeira (Funchal), Portugal Nov 11

Known as the "Floating Garden" due to its remarkable variety of vegetation, fruit and flowers, the picturesque capital of Madeira Island also offers a variety of activities for visitors. If you're not surfing, diving or sailing, drop a line into the Portuguese waters and you may hook an "Espada Preta," the delicious black scabbard fish indigenous to the local waters. The fish, incidentally, is wonderful when accompanied by a glass of famous Madeira wine.

Tenerife, Canary Islands Nov 12

Lush forests, spectacular beaches, deserts, mountains - Tenerife's options will leave you in a quandary for how to spend your precious day. Take a cable car to the top of Mount Teide, a volcano which also happens to be the highest point in Spain and casts the largest shadow in the world. Stand in its surrounding landscape and feel like you're on the moon's surface. In reality, you'll be standing where parts of The Planet of the Apes and Star Wars were filmed.

Fort Lauderdale, Florida Nov 20

Once the epicenter of Spring Break, today Ft. Lauderdale is a year-round destination where culture and cuisine are in ample supply. Beautiful beaches, sunshine, coastline, nightclubs and superb restaurants await you in this Gold Coast enclave. More restaurants and shopping on Las Olas Boulevard or Himmarshee in downtown Ft. Lauderdale are a must.
