Additional Travel Considerations

Proof of Citizenship / Travel RequirementA passport is required for this trip as the cruise departs from Vancouver, British Columbia. Failure to present a passport will result in denied entry into Vancouver, B.C.

Proof of U.S. citizenship in the form of a valid U.S. Passport is required for all travel outside the Continental United States. Passports must be valid for at least 6 months after travel. Visas and inoculations may be required for certain countries. Proof of a negative Covid test may be required prior to departure. Please check the U.S. Department of State web site for guidance on health and visa requirements and the Centers for Disease Control cdc.gov/travel/notices

Renewing or obtaining passports and other travel documents may take several months. Obtaining passports and other travel requirements such as visas and inoculations are the responsibility of the travel customer.

Cruises Plus is acting as intermediary and agent for suppliers identified on invoices provided in selling services, or in accepting reservations or bookings for services that are not directly supplied by this agency (such as air transportation, hotel accommodations, ground transportation, meals, tours, cruises, etc.). This agency therefore shall not be responsible for breach of contract or any intentional, unintentional or careless actions or omissions on the part of such suppliers, which result in any loss, damage, delay or injury to you, your travel companions or group members. By embarking on his/her travel, the traveler voluntarily assumes all risks involved with such travel, whether expected or unexpected.

By embarking on this cruise tour, you must be able get on and off motor coaches and boats (not ship) on your own or with the assistance of a traveling companion. If you will be traveling with a wheelchair, please call or email us to inquire whether tour operators can accommodate a wheelchair.

Travel Insurance is Strongly Recommended

Travel Insurance provides protection for the traveler in the event that the trip is cancelled due to certain circumstances (for specific inclusions / exclusions, please contact your Cruise Specialist for a detailed insurance brochure). Travel Insurance also protects in the event of most medical emergencies, and in some instances, pre-existing conditions. Some other benefits of travel insurance may include legal assistance, emergency medical evacuation, travel document and ticket replacement assistance.

Cruises Plus sells Allianz Travel Insurance. You may contact your Cruises Plus Specialist Judy Warsaw @410-494-1414 to purchase a policy. Conditions may apply, including special criteria for pre-existing conditions. In order to be covered for pre-existing conditions under the Allianz policy:

- The policy must be purchased within 14 days of making your first trip payment or trip deposit.
- The amount of cancellation coverage must cover the full cost of all your non-refundable trip arrangements.
- You were a U.S. resident and medically able to travel on the day you purchased the plan.
- Total cost of your trip is $50,000 or less and.
- All other conditions of the policy terms and conditions are met.
- An Allianz brochure is available from your Cruise Plus travel advisor. The traveler may consult with Allianz Travel Insurance by contacting this company directly at 1-800- 284-8300. Travelers not purchasing travel insurance will be responsible for all cancellation's penalties, loss of baggage, medical bills incurred, medical transportation, trip interruption cost, and any other cost related to travel.

Airline Arrangements

Airlines may charge additional fees such as for checked baggage, schedule change, or for cancellation. Please note if you make your own air arrangements, it is recommended that you make arrangements with air that is changeable with low change fees. Cruises Plus is not responsible for air, if you make your own air arrangements and missed flights that may result in missing the ship. If you arrive on the day of cruise departure, you should arrive no later than 11am.
