The Joys of Retirement Travel

Planning It
Doing It
Basking in the Memories

Make the Most of your Time!

- Retirement gives you time to enjoy all three aspects of travel. Planning and anticipation are almost as much fun as the trip itself, and the memories you make will last a lifetime.
- Day and overnight trips to regional places of interest are easy to do on your own. There must be so many places you've been meaning to visit. Now you have the time! Also, many local Associations and AARP chapters plan interesting day trips and sleepovers.
- Unless you have contacts or experience in the area, extended domestic or international trips require professional assistance. Make sure you are dealing with a reliable source. We've all heard about the horror stories and scams!

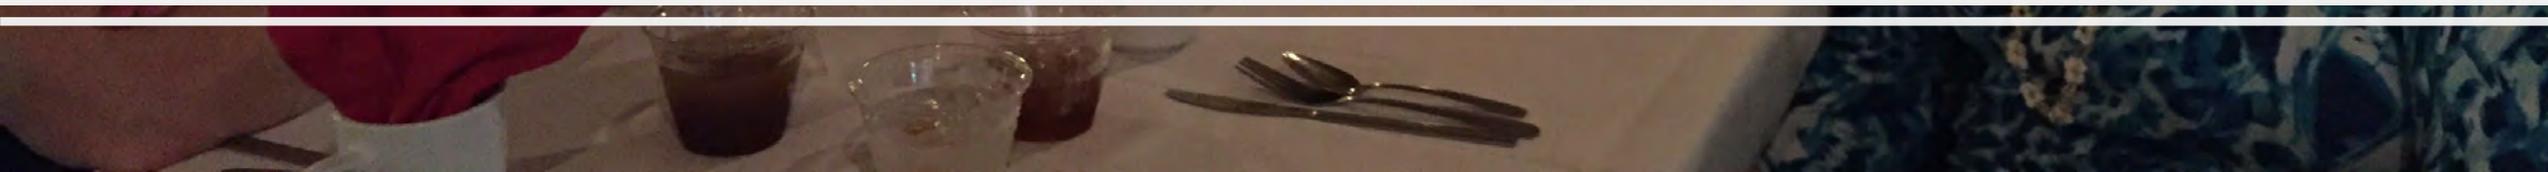

FOUR REASONS TO TRAVEL WITH MRSPA

It's your Association, managed by and for you and your retired colleagues. Here's why it's smart to consider MRSPA when making your travel plans.

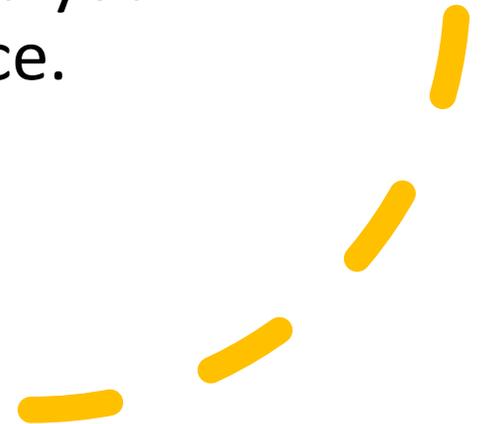

1. You'll be Traveling with People with Whom you Share Something in Common

Travel with Fellow School Retirees

- Retired school personnel have spent their careers working together and helping others. They know how to cooperate and get things done.
- Traveling with them increases the chance that things will run smoothly, and you will enjoy a pleasant travel experience.

2. Our Travel
Committee
Knows our Members

Some of us like to hang out on the beach!

Others prefer more active pursuits.

Many enjoy
natural wonders.

Some seek out more exotic experiences..

There are those who wish to explore special interests.

Our committee members know who we are and what we want to get out of our travel experience. They work hard to meet our needs.

After all, it's our mission...

To offer tours, both nationally and internationally, through a variety of travel vendors that offer the best value to all members
